

THURSDAY 3 July
9.30am - 12.30pm

We are looking forward to a stimulating series of conversations covering children, youth and adult formation.

9.30 am Welcome, introductions and prayer

9.45–10.15 am FED Story #1
Theological reflection as an educational tool:

Anne Ryan (15 mins) followed by guided conversation (15 mins)

10.15–10.45 am FED Story #2
Why contemplative practice is important for children

Jennifer Pickard (15 mins) followed by guided conversation (15 mins)

10.45-11.15 am MorningTea

11.15–11.45 am FED Story #3
Developmental Assets as a way of formation Hannah Dungan (15 mins) followed by guided conversation (15 mins)

11.45am–12.15 pm FED Input -
What is going on in the FED world
Craig Mitchell

12.15 pm FED Resources
participants will be invited to mention resources etc that they find helpful and stimulating.

WHO ARE THE SPEAKERS

FED@Kippax is drawing on three excellent local speakers, and will have the wisdom of the new National Director in Formation Education and Discipleship

Anne Ryan is in ministry at Tuggeranong Uniting Church. A former Regional education officer, she has had extensive experience as an educator of lay adults.

Jennifer Pickard is a Children and Family ministry specialist, particularly with Godly Play. A qualified child educator, Jennifer is in ministry with the Anglican Church in Canberra.

Hannah Dungan is the Congregational Development Minister at Kippax and has extensive experience with youth, particularly in the area of Developmental Assets.

Craig Mitchell is the National Director for FED for the Assembly of the Uniting Church. He is experienced in everything relating to FED and is our resident guru. Craig did not write this bio